

Conference Welcome & Guest Speaker: David Burge

NACAC Immediate Past-President

David Burge has served as Vice President for Enrollment Management at George Mason University since July 2015.

Before coming to Mason, he served as Executive Director of Admission Services at Arizona State University and oversaw the execution of new student enrollment strategy for undergraduate and graduate, domestic and international students. Other professional experience includes the University of Kansas and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, holding senior leadership roles within each institution's Office of Admissions and Scholarships.

He is currently the immediate past-president of the National Association for College Admission Counseling) a professional organization of more than 15,000 school counselors and college admission professionals. Prior to serving in the NACAC Presidential Cycle, Mr. Burge served as President of the Great Plains Association for College Admission Counseling, an affiliate of the national organization.

He has recently served on a number of panels/sessions focusing on the role and impact of public higher education – the Social Mobility Symposium, TargetX User Conference, and as the welcome speaker at the annual meeting for NACAC.

Hear more from David Burge

Session A: Fuel for your Career: NACAC and WACAC Involvement

Session B: Building the Next Generation of Transfer Programs

Session C Roundtable: Data accountability and transparency